Small handwritten note or marginalia located on the left side of the page, near the top.

Op. 11

[The image shows a page from an ancient manuscript with dense handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Indic or Southeast Asian. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper. There are several large, dark ink blotches or stains across the page, particularly in the center and lower right, which obscure some of the writing. The handwriting is very close together, filling most of the page area.]

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. It appears to be a continuous passage, possibly a letter or a record, with some lines showing signs of fading or wear. The script is dense and flowing, characteristic of historical cursive handwriting.
